

Industry Forecast: 2014 a Year of Growth - by: Dave Pakech

Emerging trends and new regulations & codes for fire and life safety systems means changes in the way we work and plan for the future. <Read More>

It's Not Just High-Rise Buildings (Part 2) - by: Richard Conner

The second part of this post continues the discussion on Emergency Communication Systems, changes in codes and how more and more people will be looking for systems to keep them safer. <Read More>

Markets and Technology: What's Hot, What's Not - by: Samir Jain

Last year showed a slow recovery of the post-recession construction market but what will happen in 2014? Are you seeing more buildings go up? Or more retrofits and upgrades? <Read More>

Building Business Socially: An Easy Peasy, How-To-Guide - by: Beth Welch

How do you use Social Media? Between Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and more, the ways to keep up on today's news and happenings continue to grow. Beth Welch, Public Relations Manager for Honeywell Fire Systems, breaks down three of the main media outlets to help you get social! <Read More>

Upcoming Webinars

We're planning some great webinars in 2014 that you don't want to miss! Some of the topics in the works are: ECS Design, Growing Fire RMR, Code Updates, Risk Analysis, and some great new products coming out that are sure to help grow your business! Check our webinar page for dates and registration information. Have a suggestion for a topic? Join our discussion in our LinkedIn group.