Basic Fire Alarm Technology (Day 1): CEU #07-1822

This is a one day introductory course for individuals with little or no background in the fire alarm industry. Included are definitions, terminologies, primary and secondary functions of a fire alarm control and voice, evacuation systems, various initiating and notification devices, digital communicators, sprinkler system agent releasing systems, waterflow devices, field wiring styles, and the differences between conventional and addressable fire alarm systems. This course also covers design considerations and basic codes such as NFPA 72 and The American Disabilities Act (ADA). This course concludes with a written examination and the completion of a post course evaluation.

You MUST attend the Addressable Fire Alarm Control Panels course on Days 2 & 3 to be eligible for a BASIC certificate.

Addressable Fire Alarm Control Panels (Day 2 & 3): CEU #07-1821

This one and half day course on Fire-Lite's Addressable Intelligent Fire Alarm Control Panels is for individuals with experience in addressable fire alarm systems. The course covers the features, functions and capabilities of addressable control panels, the various input, output and supplementary devices, optional components and modules and programming. The course includes a hands-on laboratory in wiring, programming and troubleshooting and concludes with a written examination and a post course evaluation.

Voice Evacuation Systems (Day 2 & 3): CEU #07-1815

This is a two-hour course for individuals with experience in voice alarm and evacuation. The course covers FireLite's ACC-25/50 Audio Command Center and the ACC-25/50ZS Audio Zone Select system.

You MUST register online at www.firelite.com no later than Thursday, June 5th. Registrations submitted after June 5th will not be given pre-registered status but will be considered walk-ins. Space or Literature may not be available for walk-ins. Due to popular demand, Fire•Lite reserves the right to limit the number of attendees per company if necessary. Fire•Lite cannot accept registrations once a class is marked "FULL." Refer to the web site for class status.
